Activity Overview

- Each team guides their 'explorer' avatar onto trains, buses, boats, balloons or an occasional airship
- The game unfolds over 3 stages during which teams must be mindful of how quickly they consume vital resource tokens
- Players must plan carefully to ensure their traveller has enough tokens to reach the finish line
- The team is divided into a single 'explorer' and multiple 'guides' who each receive different information!
- The data isn't there for long, so open dialogue, collaborative teamwork and planning are essential
